

The Great Houses of the British Isles - at Auction

"When it's three o'clock in New York, it's still 1938 in London."
- Bette Midler

Public broadcasting in America has made people in the States nostalgic for the lifestyle of the English landed aristocracy. How can Castle Howard compare to Levittown?

Bygone times and grandiloquence are captured in the auction sales of this delicious list of greatness. These catalogues are more than the yard sales of the Right Honorables and the peers.

We are talking contents not real estate.

We are talking about architectural treasures containing taste, style, and a heaping tablespoon of eccentricity.

It's always high tea in 1938...with the sheep lazily mowing the front lawn.

Indulge yourself and turn off Upstairs Downstairs.
