

Rassegna - Ten Issues Available of the Long-Running Italian Design Magazine

Ten issues of Italian design periodical Rassegna ("Review"), edited by noted Italian architect and designer Vittorio Gregotti (b. 1927). Issues of Rassegna are paper-bound and richly illustrated. Every issue has an individual theme, listed on the cover, concerning architecture and design. Rassegna began in 1979 and was published by several different companies in its long history. See below for available issues, conditions, and contents. $25.00 each (shipping not included).

Issues:

6

50/2

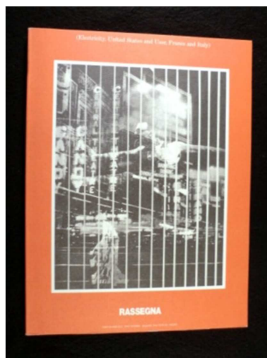

62

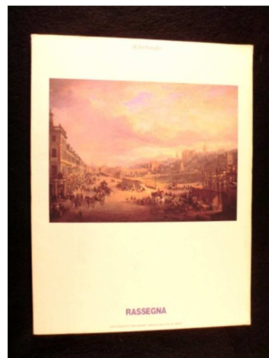

No. 6 (Year III), April 1981: 129 pages. "Il Campo della Grafica Italiana". In very good condition with minor wear to the spine and covers.

No. 50/2 (Year XIV), June 1992: 109 pages. "Indexes 1-50". In fine condition.

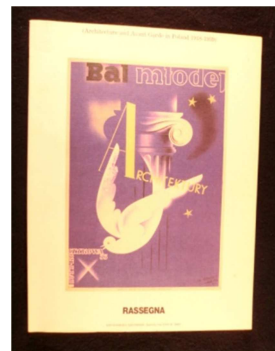

No. 62 (Year XVII), 1995/II: 93 pages. "The Form of the Useful, Swiss Rational Design". In very good condition with minor wear to the spine and the date written in marker on the back.

63

64

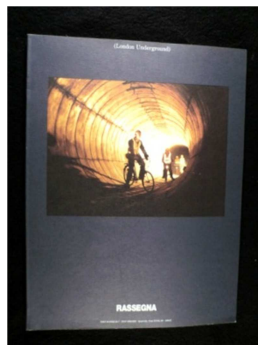

65

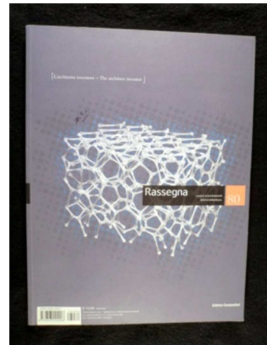

No. 63 (Year XVII), 1995/III: 105 pages. "Electricity. United States and USSR, France and Italy". In fine condition except for the date written in marker on the back cover.

No. 64 (Year XVII), 1995/IV: 93 pages. "Edinburgh". In very good condition with minor wear to the covers and the date written in marker on the back.

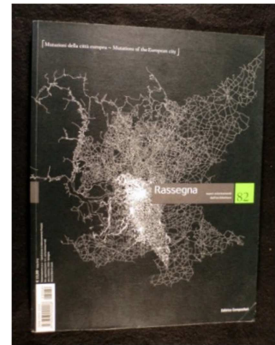

No. 65 (Year XVIII), 1996/I: 93 pages. "Architecture and Avant-Garde in Poland 1918-1939". In fine condition except for the date written in marker on the back cover.

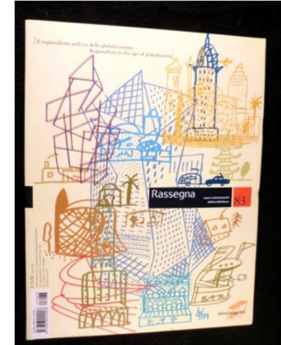

66

80

82

83

No. 66 (Year XVIII), 1996/II: 93 pages. "London Underground". In fine condition.

No. 80, September 2005: 129 pages. "L'Architetto Inventore" / "The Architect Inventor". In fine condition.

No. 82, March 2006: 173 pages. "Mutazioni della Città Europea" / "Mutations of the European City". In very good condition.

No. 83, June 2006: 165 pages. "Il Regionalismo nell'era della Globalizzazione" / "Regionalism in the Age of Globalization". In fine condition.
